18 AUG 1983

May I welcome you as a Girobank customer.

I am pleased to tell you that your Current and Deposit accounts have been opened and are available for use as soon as I receive your first deposit.

Will you make this now please using the enclosed deposit slip, either by cash at any post office or by cheque directly to us in the envelope provided. When you do this, will you enter the amount (at least £10) and sign the slip where indicated.

I shall then arrange for your cheque book and other stationery to be printed with your name and address and send you full details of how best to use your account.

Yours sincerely

M. Day
